ב禜ות.Shortly after the independence day of April 12, 1951, a bill was introduced in the Knesset. The president of the new state, David Ben-Gurion, presented the bill in the Knesset on the 6th day of the month of Kislev, 5711. The bill was passed and came into force on April 12, 1951.

The bill was presented by the minister of finance, Elazar Dwek, and was passed with the support of the government.

The bill was passed in the Knesset on the 6th day of the month of Kislev, 5711.